4. Attendance:

Attendance is mandatory, and we will be using REEF Polling. You can create an iClicker REEF account at <https://app.reef-education.com>. There will be three REEF questions every class, and the grading scheme is: 10 points for a correct answer, 8 points for an incorrect but reasonable answer, and 0 points for an unreasonable (or no) answer. I will discard the worst four attendance scores when computing the final grade.

For very detailed information on the other aspects of the course, please check the class website
